JAMES AGATE (England's Foremost Critic) in LONDON SUNDAY TIMES:

Mr. TOM DOUGLAS' acting is exquisite. I do not qualify this with any pretended humility about personal opinion. I say right out the perfection is as absolute as the standard pound or the standard yard. Anybody who does not agree is just plain wrong. If the readers of the Sunday Times do not mark this they will miss the finest acting I have ever had the honor to bring to their notice.

* * *

VOGUE: TOM DOUGLAS is far and away the best jeune premier England has ever had.

* * *

PUNCH: TOM DOUGLAS' acting can only be accredited to pure genius in one so young.

* * *

THE NATION: TOM DOUGLAS' acting is the finest seen in many years. His reception by the British public is rapturous and he is a deservedly brilliant success.

The name is BUSBY BERKELEY. After 2½ years of fighting abroad for Uncle Sam, he hadn't had enough hardship so on his return he had to become an actor. His two feet first saw the light of the "foots" in 1920, playing the lead in "The Man Who Came Back" for William A. Brady; following with the leading comedy part in the age of musical comedies, "Irene," which he played for three years just to prove he could go from the sublime to the ridiculous and could sing and dance as well as "speak lines." He finally decided he had been bossed enough and now HE wanted to do the bossing, so he became——a director for several of the leading dramatic stock companies throughout the East, which position he held for four consecutive years, in Boston, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo, Toronto, Springfield, Worcester and Hartford—directing over 150 Dramas and Comedies; over 30 Musical Comedies and playing over 100 varied parts in both drama and musical comedy. Then his "break" came for Broadway, where he——created and staged the dances and ensembles for some of New York's most outstanding Operetta, Revue and Musical Comedy successes for such managers as: Arthur Hammerstein, Earl Carroll, Lew Fields, Edgar Selwyn, Louis Werba, Phillip Goodman, Lew Leslie, Lee and J. J. Shubert. Included are "HOLKA POLKA"—"CASTLES IN THE AIR"—"WILD ROSE"—"SWEET LADY"—"TWINKLE TWINKLE"—"CONNECTICUT YANKEE"—"WHITE EAGLE"—"PRESENT ARMS"—"EARL CARROLL'S 'VANITIES'"—"GOOD BOY"—"GOLDEN DAWN"—"RAINBOW"—"HELLO DADDY"—"PLEASURE BOUND"—"A NIGHT IN VENICE"—"BROADWAY NIGHTS"—"THE STREET SINGER"—"NINA ROSA"—"9:15 REVUE"—"INTERNATIONAL REVUE", and then William Morris, Inc., (his present managers) got a call for him to come West where he—

—created and staged the dances and ensembles for FLORENZ ZEIGFELD'S and SAMUEL GOLDWYN'S super-production, "WHOOPEE", starring EDDIE CANTOR—a UNITED ARTISTS PICTURE—and before he had finished this assignment PARAMOUNT CLOSED WITH HIM ON A LONG TERM CONTRACT AS DIRECTOR.
